*Pittsburgh's Old Stone Tavern
Friends Trust to host informational gathering*

July 28, 2014

Emanuel Methodist Church
825 Lorenz Avenue in Elliott

Doors open: 6:00 p.m.

Welcome: 6:30 p.m.

Presentation: 7:00 p.m.

Yesterday. Learn about the Old Stone Tavern's past from featured speaker architect Michael Shealey, AIA. Michael has been researching its history since 2009. His PowerPoint presentation will take us inside this building that has been shuttered for years.

Today. Hear what Old Stone Tavern Friends are doing right now to save this venerable tavern, a witness to Western Pennsylvania history for over three centuries.

Tomorrow. Explore the exciting plans for the Tavern's restoration and future life.

Enjoy lively songs, ditties and airs performed by fiddler John McNulty. A musician, teacher, and Lewis and Clark Expedition enthusiast, John often leads Venture Outdoors hikes through the hills around the Old Stone Tavern.

Directions from downtown Pittsburgh: Take the Ft. Pitt Bridge towards the airport and exit right onto Carson Street before the tunnel. Keeping in the left lane, proceed to the West End Circle at the West End Bridge. Follow the signs for Steuben Street/Rt. 60 staying in the right lane as you turn left under the RR tracks. Go up Steuben St. three traffic lights to Lorenz Ave. at the Firehouse. Turn right on Lorenz Ave. and travel a short block to Crucible St. The church is on the right corner in front of you.
